Your Assignment ... Pray

By Mr. Alan J. Hodak

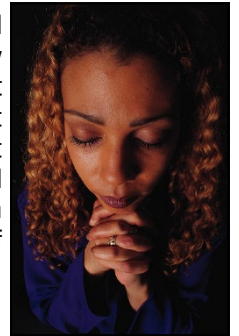

On Thursday, March 6th, the Minnesota Association of Christian Schools (MACS) hosted its annual Legislative Breakfast at the Kelly Inn in St. Paul. A number of our Christian school administrators and pastors from our sponsoring churches attended our breakfast. We expected a turnout of about 50-60 as we had many legislators who had responded to our invitations favorably, but the turnout was much fewer than anticipated. In fact, it was disappointing. Nevertheless, our folks spoke to the ones who did come about our mission, our individual schools, and our Christian school organization. We enjoyed a nice breakfast together, had each legislator sit with various students, pastors, and administrators, and we had a nice time getting to know each other better. The last part of the hour was spent with a presentation about our Christian schools and ended up with an unanticipated time of sharing.

Several of the legislators shared some very specific prayer requests that caught us by surprise.

We often think of people serving in government as non-caring, only interested in maintaining their elected position, or corrupt in some way. But if this sampling of civil servants is even a small representation of the greater number, we learned that these are false assumptions. Many of our legislators are very caring people wanting to serve their constituency and do what is right. And a small number (at least) of our legislators are believers. They shared some of their

MACS Speech and Bible Festival

This year's MACS Speech and Bible Festival took place on February 6th at Woodcrest Baptist Academy in Fridley, MN. Students from MACS schools across the state competed in various events, including Bible preaching, duet acting, oral interpretations of poetry, scripture and speeches, reader's theater, puppetry and spelling.

There were a good number of students at the Festival, and we hope more MACS students will come and participate next year!

A full list of the awards can be found at the end of this newsletter. Superior performances are noted as follows:

personal struggles of time commitments and making a living. State Representatives make very little money during the session and Senators make a bit more, but certainly not enough to make a living without working a second job. Others have some real concerns about their college-aged children's safety, well-being, and life-direction. Others expressed a need to pray for protection against threats against them and their families. We were confronted with the realization that these are real people, genuine to the core, who have real needs just like we do. They are just as unsettled about the future as we are. They are struggling with the policies of government just like us. And they are desperately seeking for God's wisdom in their positions of leadership. Imagine that! Real people serving in government who want what is right and best for the people they serve. Do people like this still exist in government? And the answer is "Yes!" We just had breakfast with some of them.

One of the other things that our legislators shared with us was that we need to be in constant contact with them whether it is letter writing, phone calling, or lobbying efforts. They explained to us that they always hear from the left, but they do not hear enough from the right. Often, it seems, our legislators must find themselves in a precarious position when they are attempting to argue their position, but do not have adequate support from their constituency to prove their point. The question we asked, was "How can we help you?" Their answer? "Lobby us!" That was an interesting answer and the point was well-taken.

What does this mean, practically?

It means that we must get much more involved in the legislative process than we have been in the past. The starting point is finding out who our state Representative, state Senator, Congressman or Senator is? The second step is to begin to pray regularly for these people. The specific needs mentioned were things we were able to pray about right there at the end of our breakfast with some of our legislators and it was a sweet time together. But I want to challenge you to make it a regular part of your prayer life to include your leaders, both at the federal and state levels.

Paul wrote something to Timothy that we don't practice enough. He told Timothy, in 1 Timothy 2:1-4, "Therefore I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, for kings and all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth."

Note that the reasons we pray for our leaders is so that we can lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence, but God's real motivation is that all men might come to the knowledge of the truth. We pray for a life which allows for real evangelization of the lost. Without a godly and peaceable life, there would be few opportunities where we could share the Gospel with others.

We will change our thinking about our elected officials if we start praying regularly for them. I challenge you to start becoming involved with your elected officials by writing them regularly about bills coming up. State your positions respectfully and tell them that you are praying for them. And pray ... and keep praying. Do not become complacent in your prayer life with respect to bringing our leaders before the Lord on a daily basis. Those who are supportive with regard to the positions we hold dear need to hear from us. So let's let them know we are here. Let's let them know we are behind them. Let's let them know we are praying.

How do I find out who my state representatives and senators are?

Student Leadership Conference

January 24, 2014 was the date for this year's Student Leadership Conference at FBCS. Guest Speakers were Dr. Jason Ormiston and Mr. Chad Williams.

The theme for this year's conference was "The Biblical Leader and his Fight."

Secondary students from Coon Rapids, Grace-Mankato, Lake Region, Prior Lake, St. Francis, Woodcrest and Fourth Baptist met together for the day long conference. Students had the chance to work in small groups and mingle at lunch and break times. It's a great opportunity for our students to interact in a non-competitive setting.

Students have given us feedback that they really enjoyed the conference., and wrote some thoughtful comments:

"Silence can mean approval. In order to be a leader, you must first learn to follow."

"The Lord taught me to stand up for what's right even if it goes against the group."

"We have to be different from the world if we are like Christ."

"During the leadership conference, I learned that you don't have to be in the highest position on your team or in your class. Everyone is a leader because leadership is influence, and everyone influences others in one way or another. Some lead toward great things and some lead to destruction; that's why we need to think before we speak and act, and choose our friends wisely. You don't have to be showy and flamboyant to be a leader—Christ was a server; He put himself below people, yet He was the greatest leader we have. Be like Christ—be a servant-leader."

"A true friend asks how their best friend's spiritual life is going. We should desire to talk about God all the time. Be different on purpose." ♦

- Christy Graves and Catie Pierson (Rosemount) - Duet Acting
- Ashley Graves (Rosemount) - Humorous Interpretation
- One Act Play (Heritage)
- Vanessa Andrade (St. Francis) - Oral Interpretation of Poetry
- St. Francis Reader's Theater
- Christy Graves (Rosemount) - Bible Teaching
- Brett Cournoyer (Woodcrest) and Scott Fruetel (Rosemount) - Topical Preaching
- David Taylor and Casey Tidrick (Rosemount) - Puppets
- Kelsey Olson and Taylor Kivel (Woodcrest) - Puppets
- Robert Horn and Rajan Mohinani (Fourth Baptist) - Puppets
- Carlie Ott (Woodcrest) - 2014 Spelling Bee Champion

One teacher/judge in attendance said that Ashley Graves of Rosemount gave a Humorous Interpretation that was indeed very funny. It was about a girl who had two boys fighting over her and she wanted them to duel. In the end, she chose neither of the dueling boys, but third (different) boy instead!

Robert Horn and Rajan Mohinani of Fourth Baptist were one of the teams that put on a superior performance in the popular category of "puppets." their theme was David and Goliath, and they earned third place.

Heritage Christian School of Karlstad put on a one-act play entitled "Calvary's Love," earning a first place with high marks for their efforts. Pastor Mark Hanson says, "Although we did compete with this play, it was really written more as a ministry play to be presented in area churches around Easter time. We did none the less enjoy the experience of coming to MACS for the first time for the Bible and speech convention." (See more about the Heritage Drama Department on the next page).

Brett Cournoyer of Woodcrest preached a sermon entitled "A Passion for Christ," was very well communicated. Scott Fruetel also earned a Superior rating for his topical preaching message. Might we have future pastors in our midst?

It's great to see the students gain confidence in their public speaking abilities by participating in these events. Special thanks to Woodcrest for organizing and hosting this event! ♦

Featurette: Heritage Christian School of Karlstad

Spotlight: The Heritage DRAMA Department

Heritage Christian School of Karlstad, MN is a small Christian school of just 60 students in Northern Minnesota. But they have a large vision, and big faith. They love using drama as a vehicle to portray biblical truths. I asked Pastor Hanson to tell me a little bit about their one-act play, "Calvary's Love." What they are doing at Karlstad was so interesting. I thought I'd share it with you all. Pastor Mark Hanson told me, "We enjoy drama very much at Heritage and have put on a dinner theater for several years featuring some live drama and more recently movies that we have produced....I really want to promote and encourage the use of drama in churches and school as I believe God can use this medium to touch hearts for Him."

From Pastor Mark Hanson:

"Calvary's Love" was originally written by myself as a 40-minute play used in an Easter Outreach in 2011 at our church. It became quite powerful and a number of people prayed for salvation at the altar afterwards. I had always wished there was something more I could do with it but wasn't sure how as we went onto to writing a different play the following year called "Calvary's Promise" which focused upon the promise of our own resurrection from Christ's empty tomb and now this year will be presenting a new play called "Calvary's Glory," which we are very excited about. We are moving to Heritage Christian School's gymnasium for more seating for the two night event. One of the actors from "Facing The Giants," "Fireproof" and the "Courageous" DVD is flying up to partner with us in this outreach. "Calvary's Glory" shows how God can take a messed up life with a bad past and use it for His glory when that life is completely given to Him. We are using the life of Peter and his struggles and a modern example to set up Ray Wood's testimony. We hope to see many come to Christ this Easter.

Back to "Calvary's Love" the one-act play. I finally felt I could condense it down to a ten-minute play without losing all its punch. Each play in the Calvary trilogy utilizes a split stage wherein a modern side presents people in a contemporary setting with someone in spiritual conflict. When a believer witnesses to them about the way Jesus has provided for them, their conversation eventually mutes to become a live illustration on the biblical side. For the one-act play version, I re-wrote the play keeping only two biblical scenes (the flogging of Christ done in silhouette) and Christ nailed to the cross scene. The music of "There Is A Fountain Filled With Blood" is played during the very realistic flogging (if we don't get the padding right, our actor get welts on his back) and is sung during church performances. Likewise, the music of "Were You There" is played or sung on the biblical side during the crucifixion scene.

The modern side characters were completely changed for the short version. Now it is two sisters in a jail waiting room. One who has grown closer to the Lord since their parents' sudden death and one who has become embittered and drifted into the world, who is now in serious trouble. Through the story of the passion of Christ, the troubled sister gradually softens her heart, realizing that Christ is also familiar with pain and rejection, and He is the ultimate source of healing both emotionally and spiritually for her. A soft sad music effect is played for their closing scene.

Mayberry Dreams is the latest film from Heritage Christian School, a small private school with less than 60 students in Karlstad, MN. Heritage has long used the Andy Griffith Show episodes in devotions because of the morals, values and examples of love that the show portrays. Mayberry Dreams is the heartwarming story of two brothers facing typical growing-up pains with poor attitudes towards their parents' instruction. Falling asleep while watching an Andy Griffith Show marathon, each enters his own dream of being in Mayberry. Here they face their conflicts and learn their lessons their parents were trying to teach them in Mayberry style with plenty of comedy along the way.

Heritage has already produced five earlier films under the name Patriot Productions. For this project, we secured the award winning production and post production services of Waterman Digital Media to shoot and edit Mayberry Dreams.

Heritage is a small school with a large vision, big faith and a great love for The Andy Griffith Show. It is hoped this can be an enjoyable tool to other Christian schools, churches and Mayberry fans everywhere. We are pleased to present to you Mayberry Dreams.

"This video is a wonderful example of the Christian values that Mayberry and its inhabitants represented using biblical principals in practical applications in today's difficult times."

Be Careful What You Ask for, You May End Up in Mayberry!

"Calvary's Love" will compete at the A.C.E. Regional Student Convention in later April along with another new Heritage one-act play; a comedy entitled "Snake River Bible Camp." We hope there will be several other good plays there to see and compete against. However, if there were no other convention/festival for our plays to compete, we would simply prepare them for Heritage church services in the spring, which help to promote our school and raise funds through love offerings.

We partnered with some of the original cast members from The Andy Griffith Show to put on a special movie premiere/concert night that was greatly enjoyed. I really want to promote and encourage the use of drama in churches and school as I believe God can use this medium to touch hearts for Him.
